

ONE-DAY ON-SITE INTENSIVE CAREER DEVELOPMENT EVENT FOR RESEARCHERS

We offer more than a career workshop.
It's a career transforming experience
and an exciting inner journey.

One-Day On-Site Intensive Online Career Development Event for Researchers

> WHY

Developing a new career in industry is time-consuming and requires full commitment. But career development doesn't need to be a grind—it can also become a joyful quality time!

We offer more than a workshop. We created career—transforming experience and invite our participants to embark onto an exciting inner journey!

> WHAT

Our intensive workshops include interactive lectures intertwined with individual and group exercises. The program also contains our original aptitude tests, a set of self-study & homework exercises, and an additional individual consultancy session.

> HOW

Our workshops combine insights into the job market for PhDs with self-discovery. Everyone is different: you will need to dig into your mind and soul to find out which career path is best for you!

LEARNING GOALS

We aim to:

- ✓ Help the participants determine the reasons behind their thoughts of leaving academia,
- ✓ Encourage the participants to think about the pros and cons of their current working experience,
- ✓ Give the participants a broad perspective at the scope of possibilities for PhDs in today's job market,
- ✓ Teach the participants that they can build value for others in multiple equally impactful ways,
- ✓ Teach the participants that the different working environments developed a variety of cultures and follow different written and unwritten rules,
- ✓ Point to multiple possible ways of looking for new positions,
- ✓ Help the participants build their self-confidence and encourage them to take the first steps towards building a new career in industry.

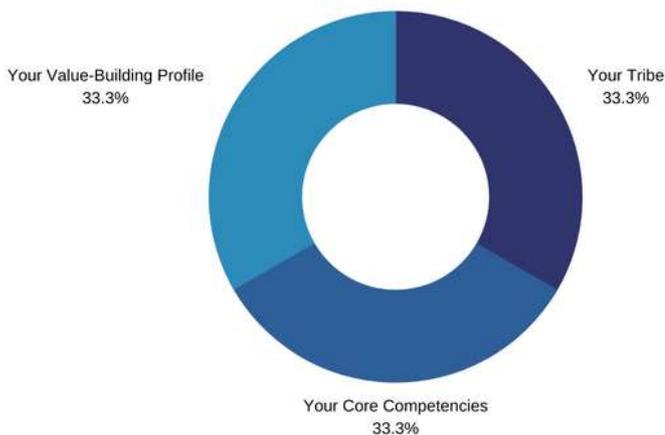

OUR APPROACH

THE Ontology of Value® SYSTEM

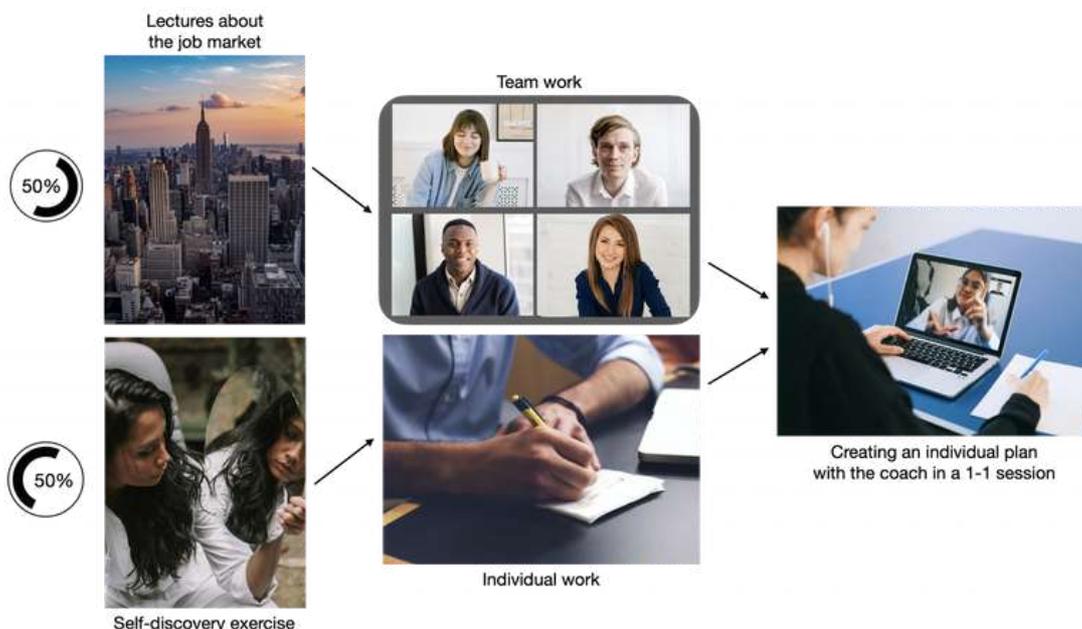

We believe that the best approach to develop human potential, is to find competitive advantage in the job market. This approach proves to be the most effective both in business and in career building!

Every professional has their unique “professional identity,” or “fingerprint.” It is composed of a set of your core competencies acquired throughout the education process and professional career, the individual way of creating value for others, and a mental fit into specific working environments. We use our own methodology to let the participants discover their individual fingerprints and help them skillfully self-navigate in the job market.

OUR TRAINING STRATEGY

In our workshops, we combine insightful, up-to-date information on the job market with intensive training in self-navigation. In order to achieve this, we include interactive group lectures, self-discovery exercises, aptitude tests, mock-up job interviews, group exercises and games, and homework.

THE COACH

Natalia Bielczyk, PhD

- Owner, Welcome Solutions, Nijmegen, the Netherlands
- Founder, Director & Chairperson @ Stichting Solaris Onderzoek en Ontwikkeling, Nijmegen, the Netherlands

Dr. Natalia Bielczyk has a background in Medical Physics, Applied Mathematics, Psychology (3 x MS) & Computational Neuroscience (PhD). In 2017-2019, she was working as a Career Development & Mentoring Manager in the Organization for Human Brain Mapping Student & Postdoc Special Interest Group. She was coordinating the OHBM International Online Mentoring Program and organizing international symposia dedicated to mentoring and career development.

In 2018, she established Stichting Solaris Onderzoek en Ontwikkeling, an international non-profit organization with ANBI status which helps researchers in transfers to industry. Natalia also has developed a broad personal network in industry. She also authored the book "What Is out There For Me? The Landscape of Post-PhD Career Tracks" listed on Amazon, she runs a YouTube channel dedicated to post-PhD careers, and she blogs about careers in general. Even though she chose to work in the open market, she is still a researcher in her free time and has a strong belief in the compatibility of science and entrepreneurship.

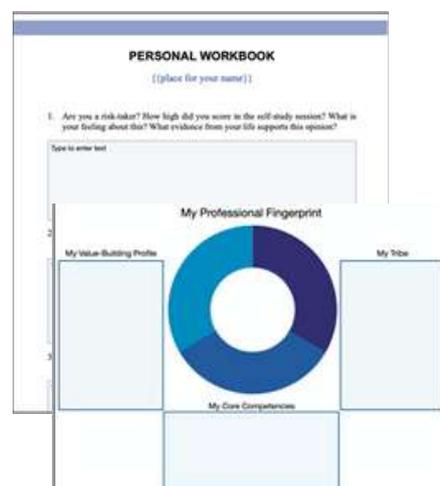

THE EVENT INCLUDES EXTRA MATERIALS:

A digital copy of
"What Is Out There For Me?"
The Landscape of Post-PhD
Career Tracks"

An access to the Ontology of Value® Test

A personal workbook to apply
the Ontology of Value® method.

SYLLABUS

The workshop is highly interactive: we debunk certain myths related to the job market and encourage the discussion between participants with the use of polls, quizzes, and open questions. Participants are also encouraged to share personal experiences with the group.

> Module A: How To Find Your True Calling? Nature Versus Nurture

What makes us happy in our jobs? How do we choose our next job? Are we using the right criteria while making these choices? In this module, we take an insight into ourselves to answer the following fundamental questions:

- What types of jobs are we made for? CV, skills, experience, and external circumstances versus dreams, hopes, personality, and intuition,
- What is the secret of long-term success in professional life?
- What questions to ask yourself before looking for jobs in industry?

> Module B: Where To Go Next? On Creating Value In the Job Market The Landscape of Post-PhD Career Tracks

There is a growing disparity between the number of new PhD graduates and the available faculty positions. Effectively, most of the PhD graduates need to find jobs outside academia. But the good news is: you have a lot of skills unique to the academics, and very useful on the open job market. You also have options outside academia! In this module, we discuss the following:

- On the right and the wrong reasons to leave academia. How to make sure that your motivation will lead to satisfaction from professional life in industry?
- The landscape of post-PhD careers. Safety or freedom? On the biggest dilemma that you need to face while leaving academia,
- Which tribe should I join? On the eight tribes that PhDs often choose, and the compromises you need to take in each one of them.
- How to sneak in? On the efficient strategies to land the job in each tribe.

The goal of the workshop is to give the participants the information and confidence so they can further search for relevant information on their own, and take the first steps towards finding the right career path in industry. The workshop also introduces the concept of value in the job market. The aim is to give an overview of the eight most popular value-building profiles and help the participants in discovering their natural way of creating value.

➤ Module C: How To Land a Dream Job? Discovering Your Transferable Skills & Core Competencies Applying For Jobs / Approaching Job Interviews

Once we discussed the scope of opportunities for PhDs on the job market, we will give attention to the topic of how to land a dream job.

The outer world might not be interested in some of your specialistic knowledge acquired during your PhD—especially if you decide to leave academia at some point. In industry, your interpersonal and organizational skills will often matter more than your ability to analyze a particular problem.

It is hard to assess yourself objectively—this is why defining your core competences is not easy. In this workshop, we will discuss the following:

- The difference between transferable skills and core competencies,
- Learning the language of business and management,
- Your core competencies make you stand out among other employees. How to determine your core competencies?
- Personal branding — online and offline,
- Structuring your resume and writing a appealing motivational letter,
- How to approach the job interview? How to speak to the recruiter? How to negotiate the salary?
- How to use game theory to pass interviews with flying colors?

TESTIMONIALS FROM PARTICIPANTS

„The added value was not only great first-hand knowledge and tips from Natalia but also the interaction with the other participants. The 4 weeks of the weekly lectures, the weekly session, and the homework helped me structure my time and making actual progress on practical aspects of the job search I had been postponing otherwise.”

CLAIRE BRABOSZCZ, PHD

Higher Data Scientist at UK Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services Skills (OFSTED) & Owner at CosyData Ltd

„I don't think there's been a more insightful or comprehensive interpretation on the topic of career-design produced since the classic bestseller; „The Pathfinder” by Nicolas Lore, published over two decades ago. Natalia's work offers career-design support that's well and truly rooted in the changing landscape of work in the 21st century.”

VICKY SHERWOOD, PHD

Scientific Writing Team Lead, Novartis

„These workshops for PhDs differ from the ones I attended until now. It is plenty of information, exercises, and homework. These gave me an opportunity to discover my likes and dislikes and it gave me a picture of what should be my next step in my career. Thank you, Ontology of Value, for your spirit and uniqueness.”

JOANNA SZOPIŃSKA, PHD CANDIDATE

Business Intelligence Consultant, Quintus & ASML

„This workshop helped me tremendously when I worked with a recruiter, performed at a job interview, and negotiated my salary. I have landed my dream role as a Medical Writer and I am thriving in the corporate environment because I love working in teams.”

VERA CHAN, PHD

Medical Writer, AB Science & Host, PhD Coffee Time

TESTIMONIALS FROM PARTICIPANTS

„The Ontology of Value Test helped mi spot my strengths and competitive advantages in the open market. The test challenges you with lots of questions that you might have never asked yourself before. It is worth every minute – highly recommended.”

JAN SZCZYPIŃSKI, PHD CANDIDATE

Researcher, Nencki Institute
& Statistician, Pogotowie Statystyczne

„Working on myself made me realize that I could have a future in the industry, how to smoothly transition there, and look for the perfect position. However, it also made me realize that most of the things that I enjoy at work and I am good at are present in my daily activities in academia!”

CHIARA BASTIANCICH, PHD

Postdoctoral Researcher,
Aix-Marseille University

„Natalia’s workshops for PhDs are well-structured and full of original, practical, and useful tips and ideas. She uses extremely helpful and dynamic questionnaires which help you to discover what keeps you moving forward and also your career purposes.”

DANIEL BOREK, PHD CANDIDATE

Stagieur, European Commission

„This workshop is different from all the other classes I have been to before. It shows a lot of very different professional opportunities. The course encouraged me to take an insight into myself, find my strengths, and taught how to use them in professional life. I am pleased that I took part in this course, and thank you for the inspiring time!”

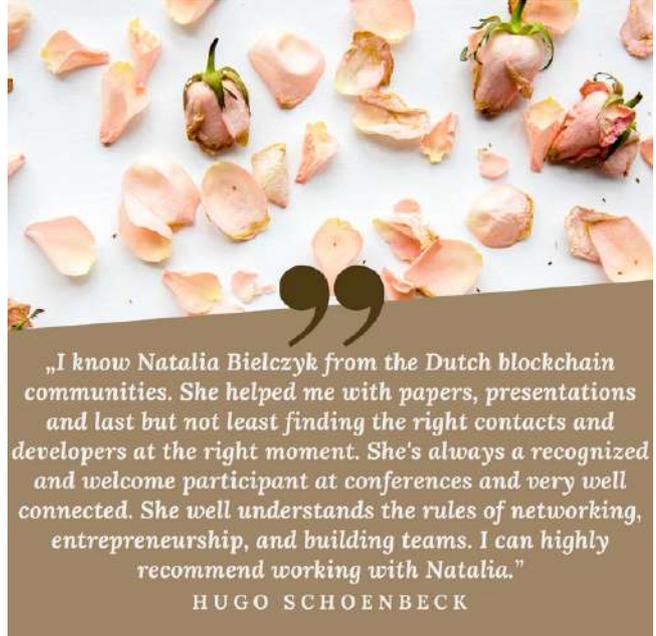

MARTYNA PŁOMECKA, PHD CANDIDATE
